

A Night Flight / Kai

East Not West

Music:Yasuaki Ide

Lyrics:George Cockle

You went away
And you left me standing here
It has almost been two years
We lived a lie
Still you left me standing here, alone

Never saw the dawn
No light through the windows
That's our story
In the dark
That's the way it started
We both knew

Why did you go?
Let me know the reason why
You took this day to fly
Oh, you're gone already
Now I know
The sun rises from the east not west

You broke a heart
And it wasn't yours to break
Forgot all that was at stake
I, I believed
Yes it wasn't yours to break, my love

Always on your own
Lonely were the birthdays
Holidays and Valentines
No one else besides you
All your days

Why did you go?
Let me know the reason why
You took this day to fly
Oh, you're gone already
Now I know
The sun rises from the East not West
The sun rises from the East not West

Why did you go?
Let me know the reason why
You took this day to fly
Oh, you're gone already
Now I know
The sun rises from the East not West
The sun rises from the East not West