I Don't Know You

Music:Mitsuo Yanagi

Lyrics:George Cockle

What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you
My darling

What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you

What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you
My darling

What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you

Happens every day
When I think of loving you
Darling
Trouble's here to stay
When I think of loving you

Seems like yesterday
You flipped the world I thought we had
I lost what love was left inside
What don't you tell me what you want to do?

What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you
My darling

What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you

What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you
My darling

What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you

I'll be on my way
Now I'm done with loving you
Darling
Nothing left to say
Now I'm done with loving you

I had dues to pay
Don't have the time to stay so sad
What I still have left is my pride
I think I know now what I have to do

I have to let go while I can
And be on my way
Now I broke free
I have to let go of my sentiments and to say my last goodbye
What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you
My darling

What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you

What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you
My darling

What's the truth?
What's the lie?
What's the use?
I don't know you
